PROJECT WORKS

Dice Game App

<https://dice-game-projectt.netlify.app/>

A dice game was developed using random numbers in JavaScript to roll dice for both a user and a computer.

Tech Stacks: HTML, CSS & JavaScript.

Bookmark

<https://mariam-bookmark-project.netlify.app/>

A fully responsive (on all screen sizes) web page was created and designed.

Tech Stacks: HTML & CSS

Guess My Number App

<https://guess-my-number-app.netlify.app/>

JavaScript was used to generate a number that prompt user (has 20 guesses per trial) to guess the number generated by the system. If user is unable to generate after 20 trials, the generated number is displayed by the system.

Tech Stacks: HTML, CSS & JavaScript

TradExpress App

<https://tradexpress-app.netlify.app/>

Working with API, the application fetches data from an external source, mapped over it and displayed them in an orderly version in real time.

Tech Stacks: HTML, CSS & JavaScript API in React

Rock-Paper-Scissors Game

<https://rock-paper-scissors-mariam.netlify.app/>

JavaScript was used to generate random number tied to an array which returns any of Rock, Paper or Scissors options for the user and same options were duplicated for the computer. A comparison operator was used to compare both the Dom based on the result from both values, then displayed the winner on the Dom based on the result from both the player and the computer.

Tech Stacks: JavaScript, CSS, HTML in React
